FILM

Last Vegas

(Jon Turteltaub, USA 2013, 105 mins, Cert: 12A)

Starring: Robert De Niro, Morgan Freeman,
Kevin Kline and Michael Douglas

On the eve of his marriage to a 32-year-old, an industrially-tanned sexagenarian Billy is joined in Sin City by his childhood pals. This self deprecating comedy grows more endearing when 60-year-old Mary Steenburgen classes things up as a sultry lounge singer who outshines every string bikini within eyeshot. Mortality looms, even for Hollywood heroes, making it hard to resist what's left of the party. Everyone's slumming it here, but enjoyably so.

Gold

Starring: David Wilmot, James Nesbitt, Maisie Williams, Kerry Condon

This offbeat comedy and unconventional love story delights in the hilarity of everyday life. Twelve years ago, Ray left town after his childhood sweetheart, Alice, dumped him, taking their daughter away from him in the process. With his ailing father requesting to see his granddaughter for the first time, Ray must return home to reunite with his daughter Abbie. But things take a turn for the absurd when Ray discovers that his daughter and her mother have built a new life with his former PE teacher Frank, a controlling and regimented figure who is the direct opposite of Ray.

Emerald Germs

By Pat McCabe

Devised and Performed by Padraic McIntyre & Aaron Monaghan

Emerald Germs is a collection of hilarious tales told in a Cabaret style, which follows the uproarious, dubious and sometimes murderous escapades of Pat McNab, possible serial killer, often found to be puffing smokes, propping up the counter of his local or simply sitting on his mothers knee. Performed in a fast paced high energy physical style. Emerald Germs is Norman Bates meets beano, Cabaret meets Farce, The Butcher Boy meets the Muppet Show.

Ida

(Pawel Pawlikowski, Poland 2013, 80 mins, Cert: Club)

Starring: Agata Kulesza, Agata Trzebuchowska, Dawid Ogrodnik

Winner - Best Film, London Film Festival 2013. Anna, an orphan raised in a convent, is preparing to take her vows when she's sent to visit Wanda, her aunt and only living relative. A cynical, hard-drinking Communist Party judge, Wanda reveals that Anna's real name is Ida and that her parents were Jews murdered during the Nazi occupation. So the two embark on an unusual journey through the wintry countryside to unearth their family's dark history. A graceful and haunting film.

Lost Weekend

Written by Padraic McIntyre
Directed by Paddy Farrelly

*Hilarious comedy from the author of The Night Joe Dolan's Car Broke Down, Carnival at Glenaduff and A Holy Show.

Five checkout girls Mary, Ann, Sheila, Sadie and Sue are sent away by their employer on a team-building weekend to bond. A bus journey, salsa lessons and late night encounters with vodka and red bull lead to antics that were not part of the plan. A play about life, loyalty, laughter and love.

The Grand Seduction

(Don McKellar Canada 2015 115 mins Cert 12A)

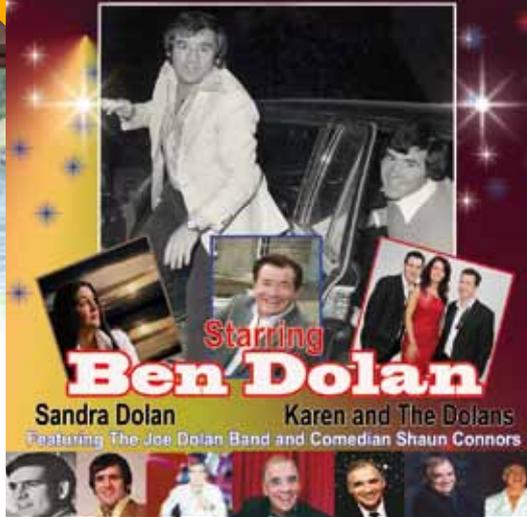

Starring: Brendan Gleeson, Taylor Kitsch, Gordon Pinsent, Liane Balaban

Like many affected by the collapse of the fishing industry, residents of this once-thriving settlement are driven to seek employment in the city, or go on social welfare. Their future begins to look brighter when a plastics manufacturer proposes to set up shop - until they learn that the contract calls for a resident doctor. Enter Dr Lewis, an ethically suspect cosmetic surgeon. In a riotous attempt to charm him, the villagers fall over themselves trying to persuade him that their seemingly sleepy hamlet is secretly a hotbed of cosmopolitan sophistication. A sparkling comedy.

Boyhood

(Richard Linklater, USA 2014, 163 mins, Cert: 15A)

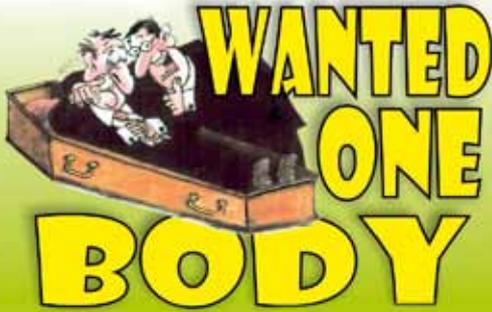

Starring: Patricia Arquette, Ethan Hawke, Ellar Coltrane, Lorelei Linklater

Boyhood was shot in sequence, at regular intervals, over a 12-year period, detailing the growth of a child to manhood. Mason shoots up and goes gangly. His voice cracks and his heart is broken. All around him, the other characters grow too. His harried mother weathers a brace of bad marriages and finds fulfilment teaching psychology at a local college; his deadbeat father straightens himself out and stumbles into quiet contentment and a new family. A moving, extraordinary film that has garnered many accolades.

Where there's a will there's a relative goes the old saying. Farney Players new production shows you just how far distant relatives will go to get their greedy hands on their dead ancestors money. This is an ingenious and wildly comic romp which enjoyed critically acclaimed reviews upon its debut in the West End many years ago.

Wealthy Mr Barraclough has passed away and his incompetent bumbling solicitors arrive at the house during the funeral to read the will. A clause in the will that grants a portion of his estate to the servants of the house causes consternation among his relatives throwing the whole house into turmoil. A murder occurs, a flood cuts the house off from the mainland and then the phone goes dead. It's left to the bumbling solicitors to piece the clues together and find the culprit before he or she strikes again!

The 100 Year-Old Man Who Climbed Out The Window And Disappeared

(Felix Herngren, Sweden 2013, 114 mins, Cert: 15A)

Starring: Robert Gustafsson, Iwar Wiklander, Mia
Skaringer, David Wiberg

*Based on the Swedish bestseller by Jonas Jonasson, the film follows the many misadventures, past and present, of a man who,
a little like Forrest Gump, succeeds in life despite evident drawbacks. Karlsson isn't the brightest bulb in the box, but he has an innate common sense and a good heart, that over his long life have earned him some surprising friends and allies including Franco, Stalin, Truman, Reagan and Gorbachev. Also compared to Woody Allen's Zelig, this is an hilarious, laugh-out-loud comedy.*

Off the Hook

By Derek Benfield

When Harold Spooks is sprung from prison in order to tell the gang where in the hotel he stashed the loot, it seems that everything is going to plan. Unfortunately, he's the wrong Harold Spooks and this Harold has no idea where the money is hidden. He's also a bit of an idiot and liable to give the game away at any moment. Add a few wacky women - Norah, the man-eating manageress, Edna who is always interrupting, and the redoubtable Mrs Fletcher-Brewer and you are in for a farce and a half!

Underneath

Written and performed by Pat Kinevane
Directed by Jim Culleton

Sticks and stones didn't break Her bones, but words and pointing crushed Her. Is Beauty really only skin deep? Does Ugliness hide somewhere deeper?

This stunning new play is a blackly comic, rich and vivid tale of a life lived in secret, a testament to the people who live on the fringes, under the nose of everyday life. It explores the surface, and what lies underneath.

*Vietnam. 1989. Fourteen years after the end of the war, a funny, feisty, and courageous Irish woman, Christina Noble, lands in Vietnam with only a few dollars, a dream, and her own hard-won abilities.
Shifting between past and present, the film concentrates on Christina's strength of character as she uses music and humour to pursue a seemingly impossible dream, always following her motto that "a little insane goes a long way."*

Take a bow!

The arts really matter to us in Ireland; they are a big part of people's lives, the country's single most popular pursuit. Our artists interpret our past, define who we are today, and imagine our future. We can all take pride in the enormous reputation our artists have earned around the world.

The arts play a vital role in our economy, and smart investment of taxpayers' money in the arts is repaid many times over. The dividends come in the form of a high value, creative economy driven by a flexible, educated, innovative work force, and in a cultural tourism industry worth €2.4 billion directly a year.

The Arts Council is the Irish Government agency for funding and developing the arts. Arts Council funding from the taxpayer, through the Department of Tourism, Culture and Sport, for 2010 is €69.15 million, that's less than €1 a week for every household.

So, at the end of your next great theatre performance, don't forget the role you played and take a bow yourself!
